Fellowship between the Masses

“Why We Worship: The Biblical Roots of the Mass”

Sunday Adult Faith Formation: Why We Worship Come join us for refreshment and fellowship from 9:15-10:15 AM Sundays in the St. Joseph room as we learn more about why we worship. Next week’s topic: “The Jewish Passover”.

Flowers on the Altar this weekend are in memory of Kathe Germann.

Join us Sunday, February 2nd after the Spanish Mass for a special Hispanic tradition for the Candlemas Day/Presentation of the Lord. (Spanish Mass starts at 2:00pm)

In Latin America Día de la Candelaria is a follow-up to the festivities of Three Kings Day on January 6th, when children receive gifts and families and friends gather together to eat Rosca de Reyes, a special sweet bread with figurines of a baby (representing the Child Jesus) hidden inside. The person (or people) who received the figurines on Three Kings Day are supposed to host the party on Candlemas Day. We will meet in Leppert Hall after the Spanish Mass, Tamales are the food of choice, but you are welcome to bring a dish to share.

Attention church ladies and friends! Join us for St. Therese Ladies Potluck on Wednesday, February 5th at 6:30 p.m. in the handicapped accessible St. Anthony Room of Leppert Hall. Come as you are, no dress code, no agenda, just lots of enjoyable food, beverages and conversation. Call or email Maggie Conway with any questions at 901-832-2229, maggiecatt@comcast.net.

Mark your calendar and join us! Little Flower’s Annual Black History Celebration will be Saturday, February 22! Mass will be celebrated at 10am by the assistant to the Postulator for the Cause for Canonization of Fr. Augustus Tolton. Following Mass, there will be a small luncheon and presentation in Leppert Hall. This year’s Black History Celebration will be in memory of two of Little Flower’s African America matrons, Modeane Thompson and Annette Owens. 🎵Lift every voice and sing!🎵 as we remember where we have come from and look forward to where we are going!
