ST. JOSEPH

Litany & Procession to Leppert Hall for Potluck Lunch today following the 10:45 Mass

Join us for a High Mass in his honor this Wednesday

March 19th at 6:00 PM

"Is not our nation today very much like Peter on the mountain of the Transfiguration, who, seeing the face of Our Lord blazing as the sun and His garments white as snow as he spoke with Moses and Elias, cried out in the ecstasy of joy: 'Lord, it is good for us to be here. Let us build three tabernacles: one for Thee, one for Moses and one for Elias.' Peter felt that everything should be kept just as it was; that the present transient glory should be captured, and that the status quo should be preserved in its totality.

But not so with the Saviour. While Peter was saying: 'Stay here on the Mount of the Transfiguration,' Our Lord was practically saying: 'Go to Mount Calvary.' While Peter was contemplating building tabernacles, Our Lord was talking to Moses and Elias of His death. Peter was concerned only with saving; but the Saviour's interest was in regeneration.

Peter did not understand that the vision of glory which he was bequeathed was in the future, not the present, and in order to attain it one had to take up a Cross. There were two beats in the Transfiguration: Withdrawal and return. Withdrawal from the present glory for a crucifixion and a return to a greater glory because of it. This momentary detachment from present glory of the Saviour's was not a truancy to duty; it was a withdrawal according to plan to seize the initiative at another time and in another way. - from a 1941 address by Archbishop Fulton Sheen on Peter's attitude at the Transfiguration.

Make sure to participate in the Annual Catholic Appeal! Our parish goal is 100% participation. See Flocknotes for links and how to give.

We need volunteers! If you need service hours or just want to help make our community safer, join us this Saturday, March 22 for the Sound the Alarm event here at Little Flower with the American Red Cross. We will install free smoke alarms in our community. Last year our parish was featured on TV! Starts at 9AM

Choral Stations of the Cross

This Friday, March 21st

sponsored by the National Pastoral Musicians Chapter of Memphis.

Stations will be followed by a short choral piece performed by the Diocesan Choir. 6 PM

Reminder that Father will be taking a group of parishioners to Gower for a Pilgrimage to the Benedictines of Mary. There will be no public masses or devotions Tuesday April 1st and Wednesday April 2nd. Benedictine Blessings will be at Gower that Tuesday. All mass intentions will be fulfilled.
