*Frondeo frugis inops: Si mors fecat, attrahet orbis.
 Iudicis extentam, Virgo, morare manum.*

“St. John tells us that if he recorded all the miracles Our Blessed Lord had worked, the world would not be large enough to contain the books thereof. There was only one time in His life that He ever cursed a thing, and that was the day He saw the barren fig-tree which was not producing its fruit in due season, and therefore was not enjoying the thrill of monotony. There is necessarily bound to be a thrill in working toward any goal or fixed purpose, and therein is the final reason for the romance of repetition. There, too, is the line of division between genuine Christianity and modern paganism. The Christian finds a thrill in repetition because he has a fixed goal; the modern pagan finds repetition monotonous because he never decided for himself the purpose of living. Instead of passing the test, the modern mind changes the test; instead of working toward an ideal, it changes the ideal; it is not marvel that existence is drab, if one has never discussed the reason for existence. How dull, for example, golf would be if there were never a green; how monotonous would be a sea voyage, if there were never a port; or a journey if there were never a destination. Since the modern mind has never decided the goal of life, nor the purpose of living, nor the reason of existing, but like a weathercock has changed with every wind of doctrine and suggestion, it is necessarily bound to find life dull, drab, and monotonous.” -Ven. Fulton J. Sheen

THE ANNUNCIATION OF THE LORD

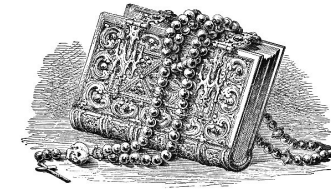

Join us for a High Mass, this Tuesday March 25 at 6:00 PM. This is a most joyful Solemnity in the midst of the Lenten Observance as we celebrate the Incarnation of Our Blessed Lord and Our Blessed Lady's Life-giving “Fiat” (Let it be done).

“As the ‘no’ of Eve proves that the creature was made by love and is therefore free, so thy ‘Fiat’ proves that the Creature was made for love as well.” - Fulton Sheen, The World's First Love

Make sure to participate in the Annual Catholic Appeal! Our parish goal is 100% participation. See Flocknotes for links and how to give.
