BLESSING OF SACRAMENTALS:
Saturday, May 31 after the 8:15 a.m. Mass.
The next one after this will be in August. Remember, this is for parishioners only!

there is never the excuse of a want of opportunity. Our Lord has told us “the harvest indeed is great, but the laborers are few” (Matt. 9:37)...Our Lord thirsted for [souls] on the Cross, and we must thirst for them too and love them enough to try to save them. One thing is certain; we are not called to be Christians to damn them but to save them, in order that all men may be one great redeemed humanity and Christ its Sacred Heart. - from The Cries of Jesus from the Cross, a Fulton Sheen anthology

PARISH RELIGIOUS EDUCATION (PRE) REGISTRATION OPENS TODAY!

Packets will be available all summer in the vestibule. Registration ends on August 3! Upcoming classes will be held between the 8:15 and 10:45 a.m. Masses so that more parishioners can enroll their children. This is a unique opportunity to help strengthen the faith of your children alongside their peers in the parish.

When our tiny little hearts are sometimes denied the love they crave, we do get some faint inkling of what must have gone on in Christ's own great Heart...But what is this love for another human being, compared with the love of God for man?...With God, there is no decrease of love with the increase of objects loved, any more than a voice loses its strength because a thousand ears hear it...From this [I Thirst] we discover this great lesson: the necessity of our loving our fellow men as Our Lord loves us.

If Jesus Christ thirsted for souls, must not a Christian also thirst?...To be worthy of the name Christian, then, means that we, too, must thirst for the spread of the divine love; and if we do not thirst, then we shall never be invited to sit down at the banquet of life. Crowns shall be given only to the victors, and the chalice of everlasting wine only to those who thirst. A Catholic who does not strive to spread his Faith is a parasite on the life of the Church, he who is not girding his loins for apostolate is abdicating his seat on the dais of Christianity; he who is not bearing fruit is like a tree cut down on the road, impeding the march of the army of God. He who is not a conquering spirit is a renegade.

The torch of faith has been given to us not to delight our eyes but to enkindle the torches of our fellow men. Unless we burn and are on fire for the divine cause, a glacial invasion will sweep the earth, which will be the end, for "The Son of man, when he comes, shall he find, think you, faith on earth?" (Luke 18:8). The measure of our apostolate is the intensity of our love. A human heart loves to talk about the object of his love and loves to hear that object praised. If we love Our Lord, then we will love to talk about His holy cause, for “out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks” (Matt. 12:34). To those who have such love,
