“We are not privileged. The passage to eternal life is open to all, but it is ‘narrow’ because it is demanding: it requires commitment, self-denial and the mortification of one's selfishness...Salvation, which Jesus brought with His Death and Resurrection, is universal. He is the One Redeemer and invites everyone to the banquet of immortal life; but on one and the same condition: that of striving to follow and imitate Him, taking up one's cross as He did, and devoting one's life to serving the brethren...In the Gospel, Jesus recalls further that it is not on the basis of presumed privileges that we will be judged but according to our actions. The ‘workers of iniquity’ will find themselves shut out, whereas all who have done good and sought justice at the cost of sacrifices will be welcomed...Thus, it will not suffice to declare that we are ‘friends’ of Christ, boasting of false merits...True friendship with Jesus is expressed in the way of life: it is expressed with goodness of heart, with humility, meekness and mercy, love for justice and truth, a sincere and honest commitment to peace and reconciliation...Dear brothers and sisters, if we too want to pass through the narrow door, we must work to be little, that is, humble of heart like Jesus, like Mary His Mother and our Mother...The Christian people invoke her as Ianua Caeli, Gate of Heaven. Let us ask her to guide us in our daily decisions on the road that leads to the ‘gate of Heaven’”. - from an Angelus of Pope Benedict XVI, August 26, 2007
