Flowers were used by the Lord to remind us of God's blessing and tender care for souls (Lk. 12:27 & Mt. 6:28). The murals adorning our sanctuary and side altars were hand painted by local artists, adding to the beauty of our church and helping to remind all who enter of the Beauty of God in creation and His love for us. Flower sponsorships will allow us to continue with the painting and gilding of the sanctuary, a legacy for future generations to the Glory of God. All contributions will be commemorated by memorial plaques.

Please contact the Parish Office (stthere@stlflchurch.cdom.org) to sponsor.

THE JEWISH ROOTS OF THE DEATH AND RESURRECTION OF CHRIST

SUNDAY, APRIL 26

Why do the Gospels stress that Jesus died at 3 PM? What were the Jewish people praying for in the Temple at the time of Jesus' Death? How did the Jewish daily sacrifice known as the Tamid foreshadow Christ's Passion and Death? These questions and more will be answered. Presentation in the Adult Faith Formation Room in the school. Coffee and donuts provided.

"Mary supposed Him to be the gardener..."

John 20:15

We are looking for volunteers to help out in our parish gardens. No experience needed. Donations of fertilizer are also appreciated. Flowers in the gardens are also used to adorn the sanctuary and the altars of the saints.

TERNITY IN HEAVEN is the true Pasch: hence, our Pasch, here on earth, is the Feast of feasts, the Solemnity of solemnities. The human race was dead; it was the victim of that sentence, whereby it was condemned to be mere dust in the tomb; the gates of life were shut against it. But see the Son of God rises from His grave and takes possession of eternal life. Nor is He the only one that is to die no more, for, as the Apostle teaches us, He is the first-born from the dead.

The Church would, therefore, have us consider ourselves as having already risen with our Jesus, and as having already taken possession of eternal life. The holy Fathers bid us look on these fifty days of Easter, as the image of our eternal happiness. They are days devoted exclusively to joy; every sort of sadness is forbidden; and the Church cannot speak to her divine Spouse without joining to her words that glorious cry of heaven, the Alleluia, wherewith, as the holy Liturgy says, the streets and squares of the heavenly Jerusalem resound without ceasing. We have been forbidden the use of this joyous word during the past nine weeks; it behooved us to die with Christ: but now that we have risen together with Him, from the tomb, and that we are resolved to die no more that death, which kills the soul, and called our Redeemer to die on the Cross, we have a right to our Alleluia.

The Providence of God, who has established harmony between the visible world and the supernatural work of grace, willed that the Resurrection of our Lord should take place at that particular season of the year, when even nature herself seems to rise from the grave. The meadows give forth their verdure, the trees resume their foliage, the birds fill the air with their songs, and the sun, the type of our triumphant Jesus, pours out his floods of light on our earth made new by lovely Spring. At Christmas, the sun had little power, and his stay with us was short; it harmonized with the humble birth of our Emmanuel, who came among us in the midst of night, and shrouded in swaddling clothes; but now, He is "as a giant that runs his way, and there is no one that can hide himself from his heat" (Psalm 18: 6-7). Speaking, in the Canticle, to the faithful soul, and inviting her to take her part in this new life which He is now imparting to every creature, our Lord Himself says:

"Arise, my dove, and come! Winter is now past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers have appeared in our land. The voice of the turtledove is heard. The fig tree hath put forth her green figs. The vines, in flower, yield their sweet smell. Arise thou, and come!"
(Canticle of Canticles 2: 10-13).
